Deputy PM Prak Sokhonn Appreciates Cambodia-Turkey Relations

His Excellency Prak Sokhonn, Deputy Prime Minister, Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, highly appreciated the development in the relations between Cambodia and Turkey and appreciated the contribution by Ambassador of Turkey, Her Excellency Ayda Ünlü in this purpose, during a farewell call by the latter on 27 June 2022.

The Deputy PM congratulated the Envoy upon receiving the highest distinction of the Royal Order of Sahametrey reserved for foreign Dignitaries, the Class of Maha Serey Wathana from Samdech Techo PM Hun Sen. Ambassador Ayda Ünlü expressed great pleasure for having contributed in the enhancement of the relationship between the two countries.

Deputy PM Prak Sokhonn recalled the historic and successful official visit to Turkey in October 2018 by Samdech Techo Prime Minister Hun Sen that has built a foundation for the broadening and strengthening of the bilateral relations and cooperation between the two countries. He also touched on his fruitful official visit to Turkey in February this year and noted with satisfaction the gathering then between the two countries' Chamber of Commerce that has paved the way for the promotion of the bilateral economic and trade relations as well as the inauguration of the Cambodian Embassy over there to respond to the increasing ties.

Deputy PM Prak Sokhonn thanked the Turkish government for the development assistance provided to the country, including the housing project in Saang district, Kandal province. Ambassador Ayda Ünlü told the Deputy PM that her successor would continue assistance for projects relating to infrastructure road, housing and school.
